DESCRIPTION:

In the centre of Desenzano del Garda, just a few steps from the historic town centre and the lakeshore, we offer a unique and exclusive property, perfect for the development of a prestigious private villa. Located in a strategic and privileged position, this property offers spacious and well-structured spaces, perfect for creating a luxury residence with every comfort, immersed in the charm of the heart of Lake Garda. At the moment, the property is operating as a high-level guest house, with a successful management that confirms its value and potential. It is spread over several levels and comprises six refined rooms, each characterised by unique design details, as well as a splendid suite designed to offer an exclusive experience. Common areas include an elegant lobby, a bright breakfast room and a fully equipped kitchen, elements that could be transformed or adapted to meet the needs of a private residence of the highest standard. The central location, combined with the peace and quiet of the context, makes this property an ideal solution for those seeking an exclusive retreat within walking distance of the best that Desenzano has to offer, with restaurants, boutiques, the harbour and train station within easy reach. The large private parking area is also a rare and valuable plus in this location. The property offers great opportunities for customisation and development, making it possible to create a property that perfectly reflects the taste and needs of the future owner. If you wish to build a luxury villa in one of the most attractive locations on Lake Garda, this property represents an unmissable opportunity. We remain at your disposal for further information and on-site visits.
